

Alpine Garden Society Ulster Group

Plant of the Month, November 2021

Fuchsia Lottie Hobby - by Liam McCaughey

A pretty, small fuchsia, about 30 cm in size, growing in a corner of our crevice garden, photographed November 2nd. Purchased three years ago from Susan Tindall and initially kept indoors (overwintering as advised by the RHS), but seems to be doing better outdoors. Apparently hybridised by a Mr Edwards in 1839.

