

Alpine Garden Society Ulster Group

Plant of the Month, February 2022

Galanthus plicatus 'Diggory' - by Joan McCaughey

As snowdrops arrive with the spring, one of our favourites is 'Diggory'- distinctive with its attractive puckered petals. A nostalgic reminder for us of meeting its finder, Rosie Steele, on AGS tours in the past. Rosie found it in a Norfolk garden, and It is named for her late son Diggory.