

Plant of the Month, July 2022

Orthrosanthus laxus - by Anne McCaughan

Orthrosanthus laxus is native to southwestern Australia.

A member of the iris family, it grows from a woody rhizome. It will grow in sun or part shade and likes some moisture. I have had it about 8 years, but this is only the second time it has flowered. It is 58cm tall.

